Mike Di Bartolomeo really seems to know where it's at when he is near Kelly Kekic and Kelly Dwyer. Jessica Hopkins, Amy Hodder, Kathy Bartel and Gina Zeman seem to be looking for where it's at in the E-Room.

Hail to thee, O Euclid High School
 To thy name all praise we sing.
 Happy days of youthful pleasure,
 Learning, living, life so dear.
 Our hearts fill with gratitude for all that is to be;
 Alma Mater Euclid High School,
 All our praise we sing to thee.

Where the blue of Erie's waters
 Casts the sun's bright golden rays,
 There all Euclid's sons and daughters
 Sing the joys of student days.
 If after days be dark and drear,
 And storms of life draw nigh,
 The memories of our friendships here
 Will lift our hearts to Euclid high.

Mike Karabinus, Karen Esch and Marnie Salupo know that in order to face a hard day of classes they must get enough nourishment. Dan Vega, Verne Daugherty, Dave Hartman and John Vuyancih believe that a game of air hockey is where it's at. Joe Wein knows that it's great to be with Jackie Chambers.

A NEW LOOK

Euclid High School

sports a new fashion

for 1991-92

Some of the changes that students encountered were the emergency lights located throughout the halls and the new fire alarm boxes and sirens. The administrative corridor was carpeted and now has a much more pleasant atmosphere.

A transformation came over Euclid High School in 1991-92 and a New Look developed. A large number of changes occurred during the summer and greeted the students when they returned in the Fall.

Physically the building itself went through numerous improvements. The roof was recovered to stop the leaking and to improve drainage. The Greenhouse was removed from the roof above the Planetarium so there would be no more leaks. Hazardous asbestos was removed from the walls in the E-Room and the decorations were completely redone. Carpeting was added to the floor of the activity room and walls of the entire E-Room. Skylights were installed and glass doors were placed to separate rooms.

The halls on the first floor had their ceilings removed and dropped ceilings installed with enclosed lighting. Carpeting was installed in the Administrative corridor and offices. A new fire alarms system was installed to pass state laws. An improved P.A. system greeted students in the halls the first couple of weeks of school. The Girl's Pool was finally completed. A new computer network was installed and the Whittle Television System was expanded. Much of the parking lot was resurfaced and new lights installed. Old mortar was removed from the outside of the building and new mortar installed. The Stadium was finished and a new press box was built for the baseball field.

An enormous counseling change occurred within the administrative offices. The Unit Offices, once organized by grade level, were rearranged to alphabetical order creating three unit offices where there were four. A new Attendance office was established, along with the PASS Unit for at risk students.

Returning students were greeted by a much improved school building.

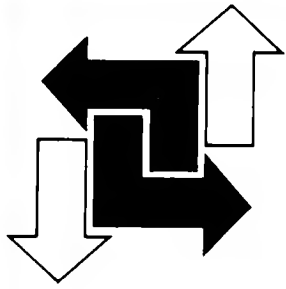

-Emily Smayda

New exit signs were mounted throughout the school. Many of the changes took place outside the school. Some of the students enjoying the new look were Bob Yoe and Kristen Golinar, Kim Schmidt, Jill Slattery and Greg Bitner, Mark Cickavage, Benji Boyd, Nick Burdock, Nick Perry and Phil Sillia, and Dan Burke, Jeff Grossman, Carrie Winter and Bill Eppich.

STUDENT LIFE

Life in the fast lane

Renee Thomas, Cara Parise, Liesel Sacko, Carrie Belavich, Cecilia Miller, Stacy Meden and Julie Montagner having fun while waiting for the bus that would take them to their volleyball game.

FACE THE FACTS

Euclid has Spirit

HOMECOMING

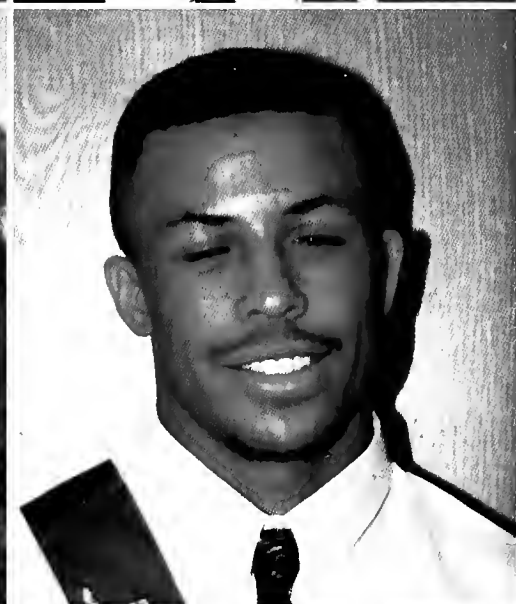

Shannon Marek, Saul Butkus, Gorman, Mark Cickavage, Tracy Petkovic and Joe Godina were only of a few of the students who enjoyed themselves at the Homecoming Dance. The entire King and Queen and Court at the Homecoming Dance.

The Euclid Panthers smashed to a 37-0 victory over Brush to begin an exciting Homecoming weekend. Students and alumni sat back to watch outstanding plays by our extremely talented and dedicated team. The fans and noise rose with each touchdown which started off quickly as Raeshuan Jernigan returned the opening kickoff for a touchdown and the Panthers never looked back.

Traditionally the halftime show unveiled the Homecoming King and Queen. Michael Beck and Kelah Pennington were crowned under wondering eyes and a starry sky.

Fireworks broke out after the game to enhance the magic of the night. The football game proved to be an outstanding way to start an unforgettable Homecoming weekend.

KING

October 5, 1991 was Euclid's annual Homecoming gala in the E-Room. The theme was "Almost Paradise" and Student Council again did their usual excellent job of creating the perfect atmosphere. Palm trees and pink flamingos adorned the windows, and the customary multi-colored balloons clung to the ceiling. Couples posed for their pictures next to a waterfall in front of a tropical island backdrop.

The Homecoming court reigning over the festivities consisted of King Mike Beck and Queen Kelah Pennington. Senior attendants were Von Tolbert, Holly Scott, Mike Kim, and Amy Garbincus. Junior attendants were Marty Moushey and Tasha Elliot. Sophomore attendants were Tim Brokaw and Julie Di Bartolomeo.

Some students attended Homecoming with a good friend, some went with that "special someone". Many danced up a storm, while others spent the evening socializing with their friends. Despite diverse interests, all who were there agreed that "Almost Paradise" came quite close to it.

STORAGE

Over the years lockers have become less of a storage area for books and personal belongings and more of a place for personal creativity for those who are so inclined. Some students have made their lockers their own special home. These decorations were a good escape for those students who needed to break away from the "norm" of empty locker walls. As part of the building improvements that took place during the summer the lockers on the first and second floors were repainted so the students occupying those lockers had bright, cheery lockers while the students who found they had lockers on the third floor had the same, drab colors as in previous years. Maybe next year they will be the lucky ones.

EXPRESSION

WORKING OUT

Work!, Work!, Work! Play? Are jobs just full of dull, tiresome work or is there a small glimmer of enjoyment in them? A job gives students a sense of independence along with responsibility. One can feel a certain satisfaction in selling a large order, helping a customer or even making a perfect ice cream cone. Jobs help to force students to manage their time and money better.

Sometimes having a job doesn't seem to be worth the time or effort. It may interfere with school work or social activities. Bosses may get on peoples nerves or everything you do turns out wrong. During these bad days a smile from a customer, a friend coming in to say "Hi", or just a good song on the radio is enough to cheer you up.

It isn't easy to juggle a high school life and a job. For some students it is necessary to plan for the future. For others it just means extra spending money. Whatever it is, it changes a person's outlook of their high school years.

ROYAL BALL

Winterfest takes place in medieval castle

The 1992 Valentine season was climaxed for Euclid students with the annual Student Council Winterfest formal dance which was held in the E-room on Saturday, February 15 from 7:30 to 11:00 PM. The theme was The Royal Ball and all couples were appropriately treated like royalty as they were announced by Mr. Stephen Alspaugh as they entered and presented their tickets. The E-room was magically transformed into a medieval castle complete with Royal Red drapery, a carriage, suits of armor, shields and balloons. With only 200 couples in attendance, the E-room was not at full capacity but everyone present seemed to have an enjoyable time.

One very important part of the evening was the announcing of the King and Queen and the members of the Court. The 1992 Winterfest King and Queen were Kenyadus Hollins and Kelly Kekic. The first runner-ups were Matt Dane and Kim Florian. Second runner-ups were Mike Kelnhofer and Carlita Horton. Third runner-ups were Larry Nosse and Christina Gaeta. The fourth runner-ups were Peter Swyt and Michelle Abshire.

-Irene Dejak

Jeff Pesek and Jennifer Hiser enjoyed their moments at the dance. Sancy Carrera, Michael Mc Guinness, Jason Woide and Patty Cox seated around a table waiting for the music to begin.

For a visual effect the band released a cloud of smoke into the E-room ballroom. Unfortunately, this set off the smoke detectors and the fire department came to investigate. Harold De Boe is talking with the firemen describing where the smoke was.

When attending a formal dance, one of the most enjoyable moments is having your picture taken so you can remember the evening long after the event has passed. Here students are lined up waiting for their turn to have the moment captured forever on film.

ACTIVITIES

Look at all
you can do

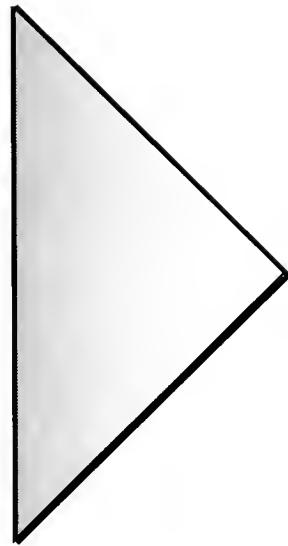

Euclid High School offers its students many opportunities to participate in events outside the classroom. There are many clubs and organizations that the students can belong to. It is a shame that more students do not take advantage of all the opportunities that they could. All of the organizations would welcome new members with enthusiasm. All a person has to do is to want to participate.

John Wheeler is a member of the Media Aides and is seen taking pictures during the Homecoming Assembly that was held in the auditorium. Members of the Marching Band and the Flag Corps and the Majorettes are seen both having fun and working during one of Euclid's football games.

DIVIDER

Being a member of the Majorettes takes lots of practice and skill. The Cheerleaders work hard to build up the fan's interest in the games. The Marching Band brings enthusiasm and enjoyment to the field as they perform their music and routines.

In Step

The '91-'92 Euclid Panther Marching Band under the supervision of Mr. Stephen Alspaugh and Miss Diane Tizano began its energetic season at Theil College in Pennsylvania. There they suffered through fundamentals and introduced the freshmen to the heart and soul of Marching Band. From there they began their best season ever. The band was led on the field by Senior field commander Keith Scheurman and Junior field commander, Eric Carlson. The band's half-time shows contained such songs as Black Cat, Poison and Right Here Waiting for You. Besides performing half-time shows every Friday night, they also performed at the Wollybear Festival, Bay Village Band Festival and a Baldwin-Wallace football game. For the second year in a row the band traveled out-of-state. They visited Atlanta, Georgia and many of its historic sites.

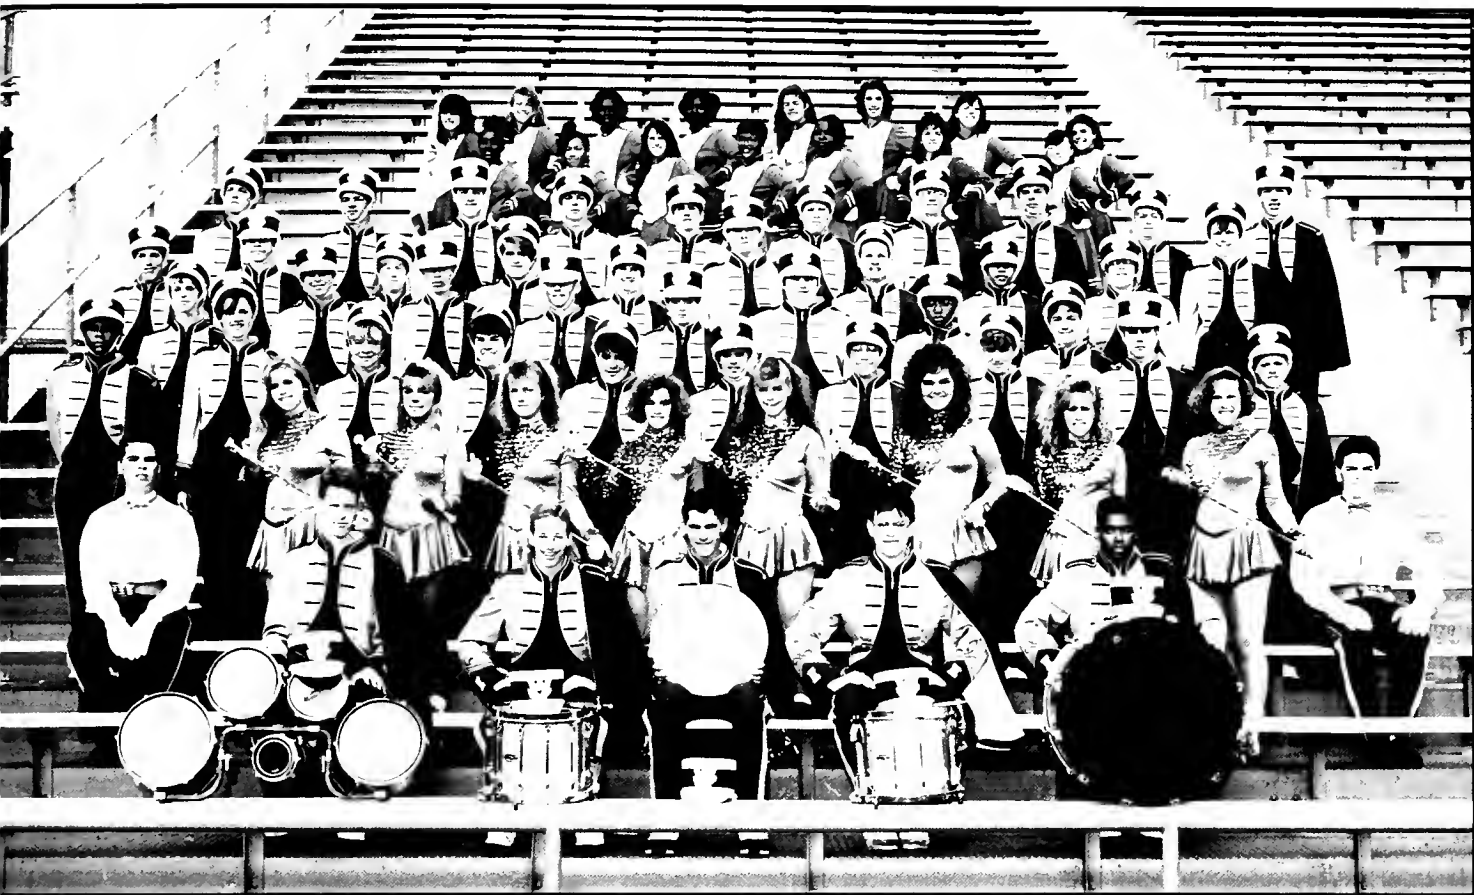

The 1991-92 band council was made up of president, Jennie Ayers, Vice-President, Michele Lynn, secretary, Tammi Vicic, and class representatives Keith Scheurman, Monique Hayes, Tony Hren and Karen Gezann. This year's council worked hard for the band by raising over $5,000 in donations and setting up a 24-hour March-A-Thon that raised over $1,000 dollars for the participants and the band. Their hard work helped pay for the buses and make the Atlanta trip affordable for all.

Look Who's

This year's 1991-92 Euclid Majorette squad consisted of eight talented young ladies; (Co-Captains) Stacey Brown and Denise Riedel, Michelle Plevelich, Christine Zivnoska, Amy Lindic, Mary Kunes, Paula Sustarsic and Sonia Janezic. Majorette season began during the summer when they began practicing with the Marching Band. They performed their routines during half-time of the football games. Before the season began they traveled to Ashland, Ohio where they took first runner-up in competition at Majorette Camp. The season was not over after football since six of the girls went to Atlanta, Georgia in December and the two captains went to Florida where they performed in the Florida Citrus Bowl.

These Golden Girls really worked hard which made them look awesome on the field. The Majorettes were under the instruction of Miss Debbie Houchins.

This year the Flag Corps started off their season by attending the Marching Auxiliaries camp at Ashland College. The squad consisted of fifteen girls and was led by co-captains Melissa Parey and Lesley Hamilton and Lieutenant Patty Mogyorody. Not only did they perform during the half-time at the football games, they also participated at the Bay Village band festival and marched in the Wollybear Parade in Vermillion. They finished up their season with a trip to Atlanta to march in the Ogleston Christmas Parade.

The adviser for the Flag Corps was Miss Deborah Houchins. This was her last year since she will be leaving Euclid to study for her doctorate in administration.

The 1991-1992 music season began strongly with the combination of the Symphonic Band and Concert Band to create one large band to be called the Symphonic Concert Band. This band was directed by Mr. Stephen Alsbaugh and Assistant Director Miss. Diane Tizzano. The musicians were challenged by the classical works of Mozart, the Ragtime of Scott Joplin and the contemporary sounds of Holst. Many were encouraged to attend and participate in the OMEA solo and ensemble contest held at Euclid High School in February. The Symphonic Concert Band had two great performances during the year, the first being in February and the second in May, helping to close a rewarding season.

STRING VIBRATIONS

Orchestra gets it's sounds from vibrating strings

This year's orchestra had an unusual season. It all began with a spectacular performance in the Holiday Winter concert and ended with a successful performance in the Spring concert. Their plans for a possible tour in the Spring with the Jazz Band were put on hold because their director, Mrs. Cheshier, had to go on maternity leave half way through the school year. It was still a successful year for all involved.

One of these was the annual Winter concert held at the high school where they were joined by the Choral Masters and the Varsity Chorale. The Choral Masters was a much larger choral group that was made up of both males and females. They put on several concert during the year that were enjoyed by all.

ALL THAT JAZZ

E. 222nd St. Jazz Band plays the sounds of the time

JAZZ! That quintessentially American form of music was once again heard echoing throughout the cold stone halls of Euclid High School in the form of East 222nd Street Jazz. Donning his black fedora, Mr. Alspaugh led the band into its third year of playing the coolest music permitted by school policy. This was not the easiest of years for E. 222nd St. Jazz: music program budget cuts from previous years took their toll by eating into the number of experienced musicians. Despite that, the band managed to produce high quality music performance after performance. Rehearsals were every Tuesday evening with an occasional Thursday practice which would almost always manage to annoy the custodial staff at the school. This year's highlights included a lightning tour of the elementary schools, performances on 1100 WWWE, 106.5 Lite Rock, and an exciting journey down south to Florida in the Spring.

SINGING AND DANCING

Varsity Chorale struts to the music

Varsity Chorale was a select group of sophomores, juniors and seniors that were chosen by an open audition. Only the most talented of the candidates were selected. This year the group was under the direction of Miss. Maxine J. Miles. She brought changes, traditions and eclecticity to the group. Varsity Chorale performed throughout Northeastern Ohio for various organizations as well as performing at the annual Winter Concert. The group excelled this past year and a bright future should be in store for them.

THE NERD

What does an old teacher breaking dishes, a screaming kid, a classic curmudgeon, a snobby business man, a gumptionless architect, a mood swinging girl friend with a passion for cleaning and an extremely obnoxious geek all have in common? The Nerd!

The Fall Play of 1991 was The Nerd. It was a story of a young architect, William (Todd Shuskey) who didn't have the gumption to go to Washington to follow his girlfriend, Tansy (Emily Smayda) and marry her. So Alexis (Wendy Wang), a classic curmudgeon, decided to intervene. Meanwhile Warnook Waldgrave-Ticky (Eric Dysart) has a hotel under development. Waldgrave brings his wife Clecia (Jackie Chambers), who is a little bit crazy, and his son Thor (Sarah Nehrigh), who whines and screams, to William's home. And out of the blue Rick Steadman (Debra Long) shows up. Rick aggravates everyone to such an extreme that they will do anything to get rid of him. Turn into a pig? Yes, anything: The end had an interesting twist revealing who the true nerd was.

Miss Sandi Bambic directed the play which was very humorous and original and was a truly enjoyable experience for both the actors and the audience.

GOOD MORNING EUCLID PANTHERS..

Morning announcers become more like newscasters

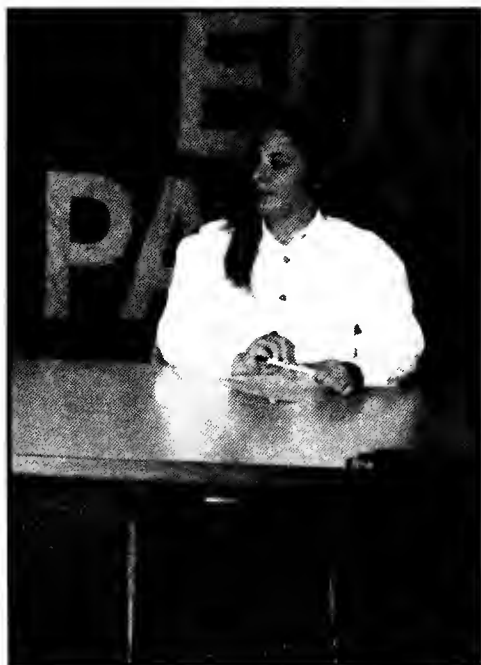

This year's morning announcers made a transition from talking behind a microphone to sitting in front of a camera. The morning announcements were presented on the Whittle communications televisions that were located throughout the school.

Like newscasters, our creative announcers read the information the students needed to know. Included in this information were senior birthdays, dates for which activities met, important school information and sports highlights. Also, with the announcements now broadcasted on television, different activities had to opportunity to present skits in order to publicize their event.

HEALTH HELP

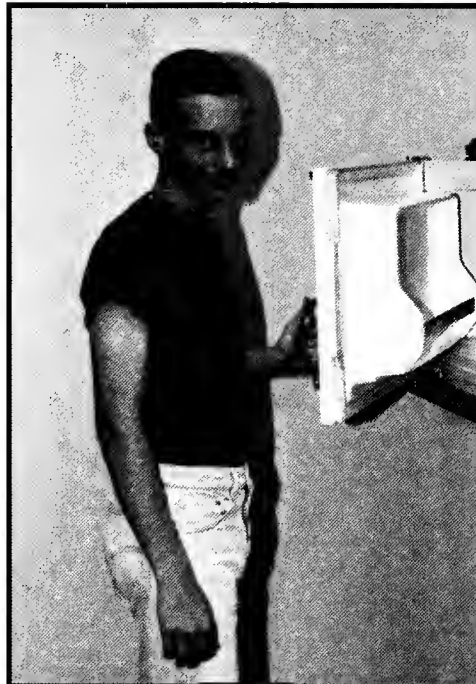

Clinic aides help keep the school healthy

The clinic aides of Euclid High School did not receive much recognition for their time but, nevertheless, they had one of the most helpful and important jobs in the school. Most of the aids spent their free study halls or lunch periods in the clinic comforting ill students. They sometimes got food for them, got blankets for them, went to their lockers to get their books, took them out of school in the wheelchairs, or simply were there for moral support. They sometimes did other jobs around the clinic like gave eye tests to students or decorated the bulletin boards. They occasionally worked in the office giving out passes or sorting mail. They were ready to help in any way they were needed.

OFFICE HELP

Office aides help the offices run efficiently

Office Aides, also known as student secretaries, or "runners" were an important, sometimes unrecognized, and usually unrewarded part of the workings of Euclid High School. Among the vital functions they performed were, of course, running for the counselors and principals, typing, and answering the phones. They were also responsible for stuffing envelopes, working the copy machines and decorating the offices for the holidays.

Being an office aide was a very rewarding experience for a student. It was not only an activity, but a chance to meet new people in the school. Also, it was a unique opportunity to get to know the secretaries, counselors, and administrators that one would not otherwise have.

GET THE NEWS

The Survey has all the news that's fit to print

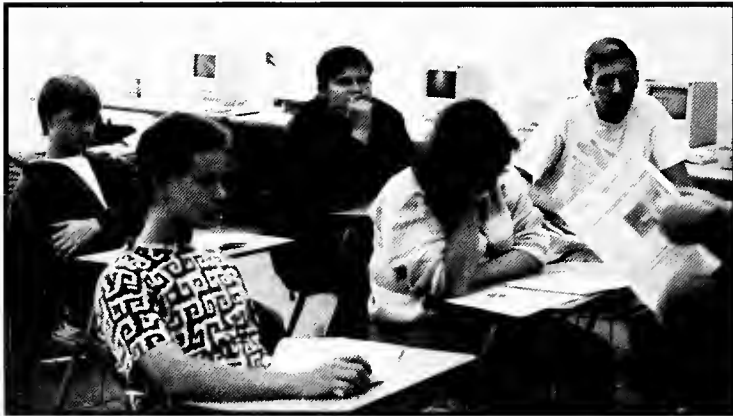

Survey! Survey! Get your free Survey? A brand new production process along with an abundance of advertisements enabled the Survey staff to provide free newspapers to every student.

Two staffs made up a solid Survey team. A new Journalism course dominated the writing staff, and the Macintosh computer opened up the world of Desk Top Publishing. Instead of typing out each story and then sending it to a printer to be set and then having to cut and paste it together into a layout that was then sent back to the printer, the stories were entered into the computer and the pages laid out with the computer and printed out ready to be printed. Miss Amato was in charge of the writing staff while Mr. Wherley was in charge of the page layouts.

FOREIGN VISITORS

AFS gives students a chance to see other lands

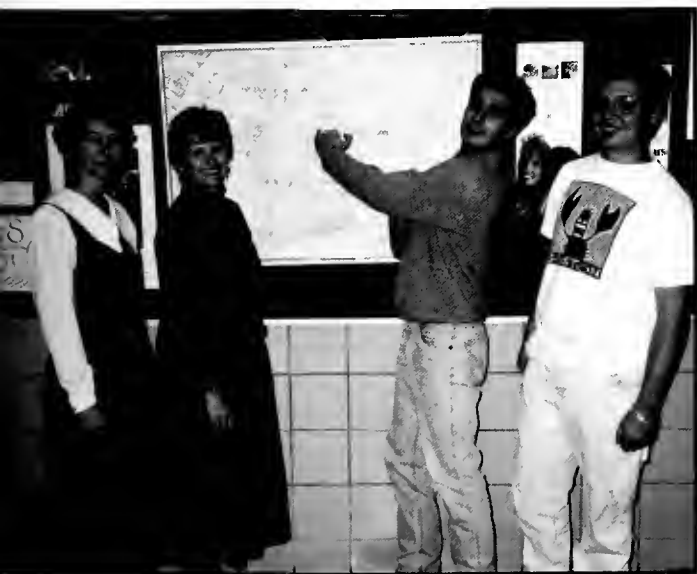

AFS! The smell of a freshly made Espresso in an Italian Cafe...The stunning beauty of a sunrise over Brazil...The throbbing metropolitan pulse of a night in Tokyo...

All of these adventures and more are open to members of AFS(American Field Service) intercultural programs. Although no one from Euclid studied abroad through AFS this past year, many multi cultural events throughout the year helped students experience the world and learn about other cultures. Deftly organized by Mrs. Ramlow and Miss Addis, AFS students got the chance to better understand people both near and far. The year, the EHS AFS welcomed a delegation from Wallingford, Connecticut and also visited them in Connecticut for a week.

Students this year also got the chance to learn about Portugal from Marcos de Andrade, a foreign exchange student who stayed the entire year with the Israel host family. Marcos' stay was beneficial to all parties involved since they got a chance to learn about Portugal and he got a chance to experience America.

IF YOU NEED HELP

Peer Tutors give students the help they need

Peer Tutors were a special group of students who volunteered their time and energy to help their peers in their studies. Not only did the tutees learn from this experience but the tutors did also. The tutors understood the material more from this process and, therefore, learned a little more about themselves.

The Peer Tutor adviser was Miss Barbara Spiga who matched students with scholastic needs with tutors. Tutors and tutees met during study halls, lunch periods or after school. It was an opportunity for both persons to expand their understanding and achievement.

D.E.C.A. (Distributive Education Clubs of America) was the student run club that coincided with Euclid's Marketing Education class. Euclid's program was designed for juniors and seniors who were interested in a career in marketing and management. In their junior year, the students attended classes and studied the stock market, business finance, marketing research and many other business related activities. Seniors spent part of their day in school learning about everything from job interviewing, to advertising and sales. During the remainder of the day they were employed in retail establishments within the Euclid area in a variety of retail, wholesale, or service capacities. In D.E.C.A., students competed against other high school students on the local, state and national level in areas related to their career interest. Mr. Presot was in charge of the organization.

LEARNING ABOUT WORLD GOVERNMENT

Model UN helps students learn about intercountry relations

Model United Nations opened an international outlook to Euclid High School. Members participated in delegate sessions at Cleveland Council throughout the year. Mock debates were held during meetings.

The goal of the Model United Nations was to show to students how different countries influence each other. By showing students' differences ethnically, Model UN hoped to reveal a way to unite all of them.

Led by President Marija Raguz, Vice-President Amy Garbincus, Secretary Bill Aube, and Treasurer Julie Pekol, Model United Nations was successful in their endeavor.

SADD tripled its membership from the previous year as more and more students are becoming aware of the serious implications of driving drunk. Homecoming and Winterfest mementoes were given to students for safe weekends along with Red Ribbon wreaths and party hats for the holidays. STRATEGY

Chess Club helps students plan ahead

The Chess Club was a group of students who shared the same interest of playing chess. They met after school and practiced together so they could prepare to play against other schools. The club was open to anyone who was interested in learning to play or already knew how to play this strategic and complex game. Again Mr. Thaddeus Thaxton supervised and played along with them.

Yearbook tries to record events of the year

As one pages through the yearbook, one is looking at the history of the school for that year. One sees styles, people and events that occurred during that period of time. This year, due to the many improvements because of the bond levy, the school took on a 'New Look'. The Euclidian staff attempted to capture these changes within the pages of this book.

The production of the yearbook was an evolutionary process in which computers were used more and more. Up to this year, copy was entered into the computer but the layouts were hand-written. With the advent of Desk Top Publishing, layouts and copy were accomplished directly on a Macintosh computer. Because of this what appeared on the monitor would be identical with what would appear in the yearbook. This means that there was more versatility when working on the yearbook.

LITERARY

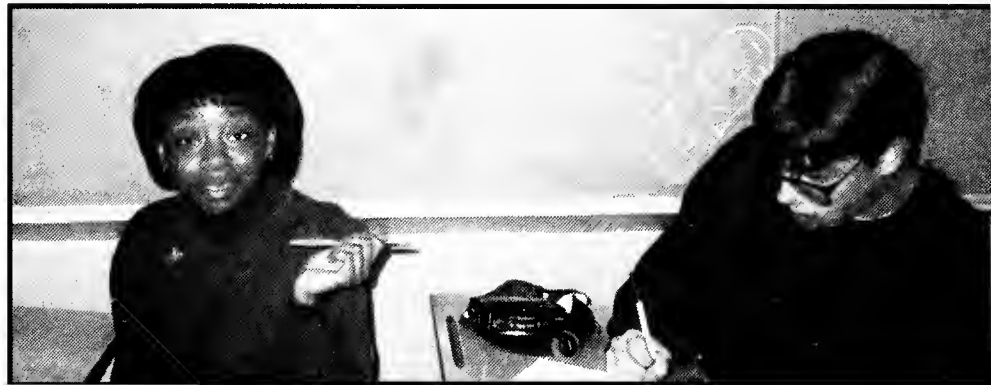

Eucuyo allows students to display their literary talents

'Oh, I know this isn't good enough."
"Where did you find that, that's from my diary." "Are you kidding, my art teacher hated it." Authors, poets and artists don't critique yourself, let Eucuyo do it for you. Eucuyo was the literary magazine that showcased students' works exposing their true talents. Ms. Carmody and Mrs. Lidrbauch were the advisers for Eucuyo and they and the Eucuyo staff would decide which of the works submitted by the students would be eligible to go into the magazine that was published at the end of the school year.

SAVE THE EARTH

S.A.V.E. wants to help preserve life on our planet

S.A.V.E. (Students Against Violating Earth) was founded last year in an attempt to make other people realize that the earth is an important place to all living creatures and that if we don't take care, it will no longer be an enjoyable place to live. The members tried to get across the importance of recycling to the students by having containers to collect aluminum cans spread throughout the building. They did several projects, like decorating a showcase to depict the importance of rain forests, throughout the year. The group headed by co-presidents, Robin Barwidi, Dawn Medved and Ginger Pomiecko and was advised by Mr. Frank Jablonski.

AUDIO VISUAL

Media aides make it all happen

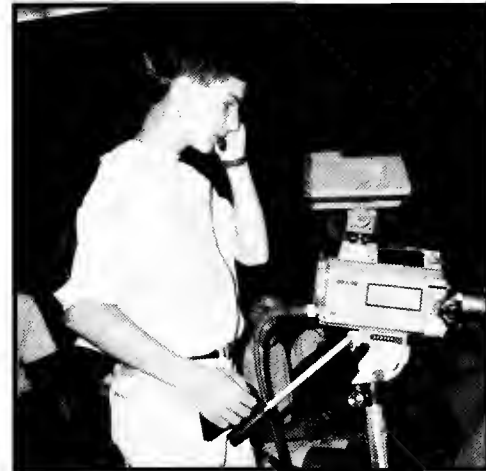

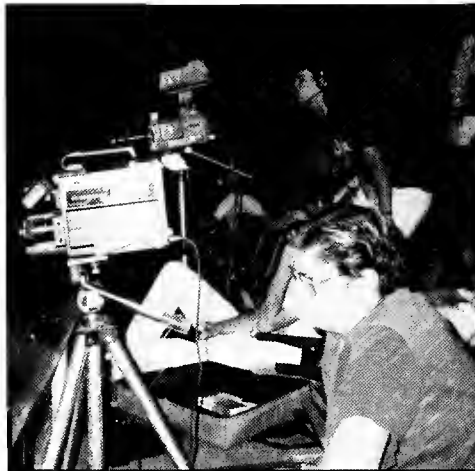

The Media Aides headed by Mr. Allen Black were an asset to Euclid High School. Without their superior knowledge of the audio and visual equipment and their dedication, most of Euclid's shows wouldn't be produced as flawlessly as they were. The Media Aides were in charge of taking care of all the projectors, video tape machines and overhead projectors used in the classrooms. They also ran the cameras for the morning announcements and special assemblies. So the next time you hear "Lights...Camera...Action!" remember all the hard work and dedication that was put in by the AV staff.

The officers this year were: Keith Scheurman, President, Paule Good, First Vice President, Mike Witczak, Second Vice President, Christy Lawrence, Secretary and Maria D'Amico, Secretary-Treasurer.

During the year there were many activities going on. The club ran a Kiwanis meeting where the Superintendent of Schools, Mr. Kurt Stanic, spoke. Throughout the year the club helped such organizations as the Rosemary Home, Coats for Kids, Special Olympics swimming and bowling and several other needy groups. It was an active and successful year.

GOVERNMENT

Student Council directs many school activities

Once again, this group of dedicated students volunteered their time for the sake of others. Although the turnout was less than previous years, Executive Board, along with adviser Ms. Sandi Bambic led the council to many considerable achievements.

To start things off, Student Council planned and decorated for the Homecoming Dance and festivities. Soon afterwards, they threw a Halloween Party for Euclid's youngsters. During the second part of the year, Student Council was also responsible for Winterfest and the annual Senior Citizen Prom. But dances aren't the only thing Student Council does. Remember Sweetest Day, the blood drive, Elf day, holiday canes and kisses, the model train show, krushes and all those other little things? Those were all Student Council's doing.

So next time you go to that dance or buy that Sweetest Day flower, think of the hard work Student Council put into it because they definitely deserve a giant pound of applause

HONOR

National Honor Society recognizes the best

National Honor Society was composed of Euclid's brightest stars and finest students. Each exhibited fire and determination towards their goals as a group and as an individual. Leadership, Scholarship, Character and Service were the qualities that must be exhibited by all NHS members.

National Honor Society President was Emily Smayda, Vice President was David Cupar, Secretary was Lynn Gessler and Historian was Bill Aube. These students led the society in successful community and school services. National Honor Society sponsored ice cream socials for honor roll students, were guides at parent-teacher conferences and helped activities increase membership.

Students were selected in May and were formally inducted in an evening ceremony that involved parents and friends.

BOO

Things that go bump in the night. Something wicked this way comes. All come a knocking in the halls of horror-Euclid High School?

Halloween brought the strange, unique and humorous out in the open for all to see. A dancing flower pot, sneaky cupid, spooky medusa, beautiful princess and saloon girl helped to reveal the true spirit of the Eve-of-all-Hallows.

Student Council organized the costume judging and later continued the Halloween festivities by hosting the Children's Community Party. Varsity Chorale performed there along with a magician. The Community Party brought many smiling ghosts and goblins.

SYNCHRONIZED SWIMMING

Wai Napolo looks at doing it together

Wai Napolo was Euclid's synchronized swim club. Its purpose was to design and perform a show in the Spring. This year's theme was Colors. The girls found songs involving colors and designed the show accordingly.

This year's club was stronger than ever with the addition of many new members. The girls all practiced hard after school during the Fall and Winter to pull off a spectacular show in the Spring.

The officers this year were: President Michele Lynn, Vice-President Jennie Ayers, Secretary Melissa Nagode, Treasurer Jenny Wolchko and Historian Lauren Scheurman.

CLOSE UP AND PERSONAL

Close-Up gets to see how government functions

The Close-Up program was sponsored by Mr. Wayne Smith. The Close-Up group visited Washington D.C. for one week to study the United States government. To raise money for their trip, students sold candy bars and held a walkathon. The trip involved visiting historical sites and getting a chance to talk to the influential people of the government. The best part of the experience was the new friendships that were made along the way.

ACADEMIC COMPETITION

Academic Challenge pits Euclid against other schools

Cameras generating tension so thick it was almost tangible... Lights burning, dancing displays of lights on retinas... an Audience that clapped on cue...

This was an exciting and victorious year for Euclid High's Academic Challenge team. After a strenuous selection process and months of preparation, the team, composed of Bill Aube, Mike Cating, Tadas Gelazis, and alternates Dave Cupar, Dawn Howard and Kirk Israel were ready for competition. Mr. Adam Pawlowski was the adviser for the Academic Challenge team.

On a show broadcast, by one of those odd but meaningless twists of fate that life is so full of, on Leap Day 1992 (February 29), Euclid won a victory on the very last question after taking an early commanding lead. If anyone asks, the Painted Desert is in Wyoming, and four pi equals 720 degrees.

SCIENCE OLYMPIAD

The Science Olympiad was an event that several Euclid students participated in at Case Western Reserve University in February. There were many events and the idea was to design and build an apparatus that would accomplish something. Some of the more popular events were "Bridge Building, Scrambler, Get your bearings, Science Bowl and Circuit Lab." Mr. Wherley and Mrs. Torelli were the advisers for the activity.

What were sports aides you ask? Well, they were the spirit behind the athletic teams. They were there to cheer them on, bandage their wounds and quench their thirsts. They were the unsung heroes who had to clean up the mess when the game was over and had to keep everything organized while dozens of players were milling about. Through rain, sleet and snow, the sports aides stuck by their team.

SPIRIT

Cheerleaders bring enthusiasm to the games

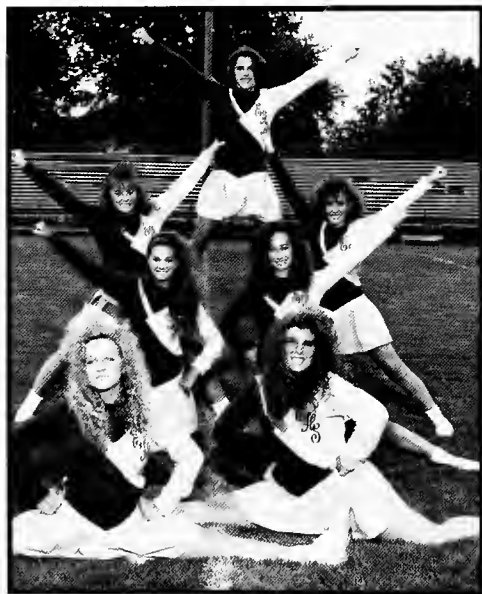

The Varsity Cheerleaders had a more difficult task of maintaining spirit among the crowd this season due to the unusual circumstances that were caused by legal complications concerning the eligibility of one of the players.

The cheerleaders had it easy during the beginning of the season due to the Panthers perfect 7-0 record. School spirit was high and the future looked promising. Then, when the OSHAA threatened to take away all the victories due to a legal complication the cheerful crowd and players became very angered and concerned. This changed drastically during the last week when, just hours before gametime, a judge overturned the OSHAA ruling and the Panthers had a 9-0 going into the last game. The crowd and players were ecstatic. Unfortunately the season ended tearfully as the Panthers lost their first playoff game in the last minutes. The cheerleaders could only try their best to thank the players for the wonderful season they gave to Euclid. One benefit of the season's trials and tribulations was that the players, cheerleaders and fans became closer.

SPORTS

Look at our athletic teams

Students are able to participate in a wide variety of sports at Euclid High School. These athletics give the students a chance to compete with other schools and athletes in order to stretch their accomplishments to the limit of their abilities. Victories, as well as well played losses, give the entire school, and even the city of Euclid something of which to be proud.

Football Runs Over Opponents

The 1991 Varsity Football Team once again put Euclid on the map as it ended its season with an incredible 10-0 record in regular season play. The Euclid team was an awesome display of both offense and defense. Led by tailbacks, Raeshuan Jernigan and Pepe Pearson, they scored 373 points while the defense, led by Marc Parker, allowed only 66 points and recorded four shut outs. Every game was an exciting display of offensive fireworks. Raeshuan Jernigan gained 1005 yards for the season and scored an area high 150 points.

The team had many outstanding players who were recognized throughout the area. Raeshuan Jernigan was the News Herald Offensive Co-Player of the year and Marc Parker was Defensive Player of the year. Larry Nosse, Pepe Pearson and Rashawn Greer were picked for the First Team while Mike Di Bartolomeo, John Arlesic, Steve Sirk, Adam Reichman and Von Tolbert were picked for the Second Team. Coach Tom Banc was picked by The Plain Dealer as the most valuable coach. At the annual Football Banquet the Most Valuable Player was Raeshuan Jernigan, the Most Valuable Linemen were Mike Di Bartolomeo and Larry Nosse, the Defensive Lineman was Marc Parker, the Most Valuable Defensive Backs were Von Tolbert and Devan Jackson, the Most Valuable Offensive Back was Pepe Pearson and the Coaches Award went to John Arlesic and Eric Wandersleben.

Soccer Likes to Kick it Around

The Varsity Soccer team had a disappointing record but made progress for next year's team. Leading the team were tri-captains Steve Barstow, Jason Phillis, and first team GCC selection Tony Bruketa. Bruketa led the team with 8 goals and 5 assists. Others who lead the offense were 5 goal scorer Mario Covic, Jeff Grossman and Matt Dane with his all out hustle. The defense was the greatest strength of the team led by seniors Jeff Pesek, Dave Baioni, Steve Sirk and Sophomore Joe Brkic. The team should be very strong next year, coming back with three sophomores, Joe Brkic, Robbie Heramb and Steve Nicolosi and Juniors Mario Covic and Jason Woide.

The J. V. Soccer team had their best record in years, finishing at 7-6-3. The team, coached by Jeff Jordan, showed signs to make an impact on the Varsity level. The defense was led by goalie Justin Mc Kee and Drazen Bilavcic and John Buchner. The offense was led by Andrew Newsome, David Bartulovic and Tony Marusic. Other contributors were Jeff Kristoff, Dan Carlton and Marcos Andrade.

For the first time ever, Euclid High School organized a girl's soccer team. This was formed since soccer has increased in popularity in the past few years and many girls were interested in playing on the high school level. There were girls on the boy's team in past years but they only saw limited action since they were competing with boys. This year the girls had a chance to compete against other girls.

The coach was Mr. Doug Dunn who tried to keep their spirits up as they faced the many difficult situations as a first year team. Although the girls only won a couple of games they learned to work together and to be a team. They never gave up and they always fought hard. The team had a lot of young players who will benefit from the experience and enable the team to show improvement in the following years.

Kristen Mihalic and Leann Uchbar were the team's top hitters while Julie Di Bartolomeo led the team in serves. The team's starting setters were Julianne Hadyk, Stacey Meden and Michelle Suchy. Bench strength at the net was provided by Miriam Hohs, Cecelia Miller and Lillian Mazzei. The back row substitutes were Carrie Belavich, Carrie Collins, Kathy Walsh and Amy Heuer. Sue Skrab also helped with her setting skills in various games.

This year's success suggests that next year's team will continue on its winning ways and so the Lady Panthers will be looking forward to a string of victories in the future.

Discussing strategy before taking to the floor.

Smash It

The Varsity Girl's Tennis Team was not only a hard working team but a supportive family. The girls proved to be a tough team to beat, being victorious in many matches and shut out in very few. Much of the improvement was owed to the summer program, Team Tennis.

Both the Varsity and JV teams received new uniforms at the beginning of the season which helped in the newfound respect that the girls received.

The Varsity Team consisted of singles players: Emily Smayda, Susan U and Helena Oroz, while the doubles teams consisted of Jennifer Melnyk, Lisa Moster, Dawn Medved and Amanda Rowe.

The Varsity coach was Pete Swope and the JV coach was Mark Barnes. Jennifer Melnyk and Dawn Medves were voted the Most Improved players while Emily Smayda was Captain and the Most Valuable Player.

Golfers found a fair way

Euclid High School was proud of its 1991 Golf Team. Under the watchful eye of Coach, Mr. Mike Raicevich, the Golf Team drove it's way to an impressive 10-4 record which gave it a second place finish in the GCC. Leading the Panthers were seniors, Phil Sillia, Brian Dunmire and Bill Jerin, juniors, Brian Bush and Tim Kohanski and sophomore, Tim Brokaw. The underclassmen on the team should insure that the team will be competitive in the future.

Cross Country Strains

The Boy's Cross Country team ended the season with a 2 and 5 record for a fifth place finish in the GCC. Even though they posted a disappointing record, the runners were close in all the races. The team was led by captain, Chris Atlas, who was undefeated in the GCC. He was voted All GCC and named the Most Valuable Player in the GCC. Other members of the team were Andy Ehrhardt, Dave Podmore, Phil Baioni, Brian Francetic, Pat Carney, Pat Longbrake, Kyle Bush and Paul Roth. They all contributed to a close season and supplied the seeds for future years.

FORFEITS AND PINS

Wrestling team did not have enough participants

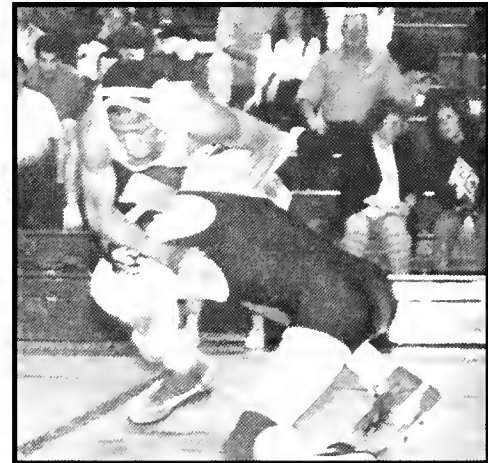

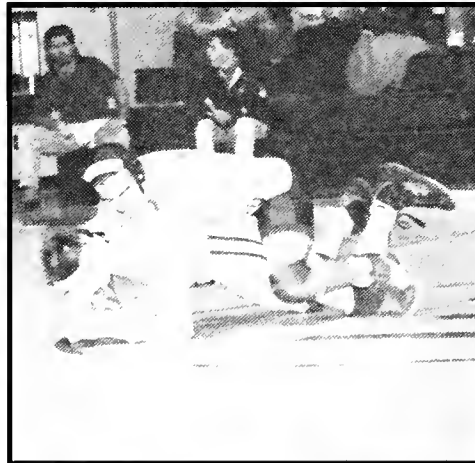

The wrestling team suffered through a long season. Very few boys went out for the team. The entire freshman team was assimilated into the varsity and JV teams. Even with that there weren't enough people to fill some weight classes on the varsity level and many missing classes on the JV level. These missing classes meant forfeits so the rest of the team started off the matches behind their opponents. The team suffered from lack of experience. They were a young team that could not rely on the leadership from lots of seniors. It was a young team that should improve in the years to come.

SEVEN IN A ROW

Roundballers take GCC in almost perfect season

The number seven is considered lucky by some people. Well it was the right number for the boys varsity basketball team. The team won its' seventh consecutive GCC championship as it headed for the state tournaments. The team was led by captains Brian Dunmire, Gary Meeks and John Vuyancih. Dunmire was a highly rated guard in giving assists. Meeks led the Cleveland area in rebounding. Meeks and Vuyancih were among the leaders in scoring. Coach Daugherty also received great all-around performances by Mike McDougall, Daymond Callahan and Raeshuan Jernigan. Other players off the bench were Ken Davis, Kevin Flynt, Brian Francetic, Dave Grice, Michael Lee, Jewvon Mc Michael, Larry Nosse, Ron Siedler and Vince Sztul. This was Coach Daugherty's 33rd season as the Panthers' coach. The team was rated in the top 5 in the area and in the top 10 in the state.

Under the tutelage of coach Dennis Turkall the JV boy's basketball team compiled an impressive 16-4 record and finished first in the GCC. The entire boy's basketball program was very successful since the varsity, JV and freshmen teams won 48 regular season games while only losing 6. The JV players learned to work together and help each other when needed. With the addition of many talented players from the freshmen team, next years varsity and JV teams should have excellent seasons.

SUPER SEASON

Freshmen boys show lots of promise

Undefeated season

What a season for the Freshman basketball team! They finished the regular season with a perfect 14-0 record and then participated in the Willoughby South tournament and won all three of their games against Cardinal, South and North to finish the year with a 17-0 record. The team was coached by Mr. Steven Marcu without whose leadership they would never have been able to achieve what they did. The fast game plan that the Freshmen used will make the transition to the junior varsity and varsity levels easy. Several of these players will no doubt be playing on the varsity next year which should help keep the strong basketball tradition alive in the years to come.

LEARNING EXPERIENCE

Freshmen girls get valuable playing time

The Freshmen girls had a tough time during the 1992 season. They fought hard but came out on the losing end of most of their games. Under the watchful eye of coach Mark Barnes they developed some sense for the court and the ball and each other. Hopefully as they mature they will be able to contribute more to the junior varsity and varsity teams.

TOUGH SEASON

Lady Panthers lacked an outstanding player

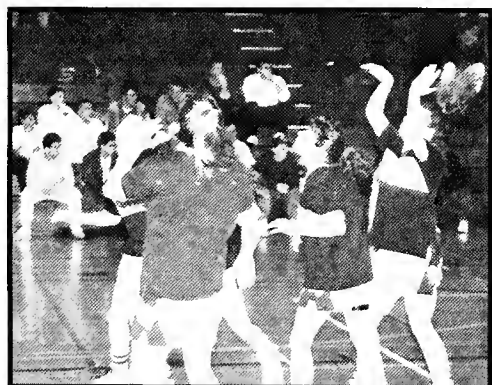

Coach Roy Pignatiello defined a team as "a group of individuals that put the goal before themselves". Varsity was exactly that, the top female basketball players, working together as one. The player that scored the most points, had the most rebounds and had good ball handling was Jennifer Hiser. Other, less heralded players, were guard Jill Slattery who displayed a positive attitude with lots of leadership, and Kristen Mihalic who often led the team to victory. During practice harder work and more intensity was stressed. That helped the team to improve on the court during the games. Coach Pignatiello encouraged the girls "to make themselves better and the team better by improving their skills".

The girls finished the season with an overall record of 12-7 and 7-7 in the GCC which gave them a third place finish.

IMPROVING SKILLS

Junior Varsity supplies talent to the Varsity

The Junior Varsity girl's basketball team had a season filled with obstacles. But as coach Sue Drienka said, "it was fun and a learning experience for each girl". The goal was to work harder and get together. Coach Drienka advised the players to "keep improving to be the best" and "take what is learned on the court and use it off the court." The team had constant discussions about past performances and how that could relate to the future. Despite the JV's record of 10-9, they had a 7-7 mark in the GCC which was good enough for a fourth place finish. That would not have been possible without the 'second string people' who pushed the others. Otherwise the concept of a team would have been meaningless. Coach Drienka defined 'team' where everyone gets along, works together to meet the same goals and helps one another so that everyone can become their best. JV was achieving that.

PRACTICING INSIDE

Indoor track helps prepare team for outdoor season

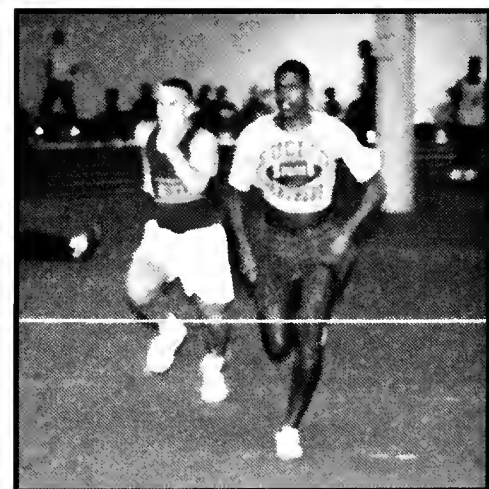

Indoor track gives students who were interested in track an opportunity to do something during the Winter season between cross country in the Fall and outdoor track in the Spring. Indoor track was not a GCC sport since most of the schools do not possess facilities as Euclid does. Opponents come from all over northeast Ohio. Indoor track is becoming more popular and there are many dual meets as well as multi-school invitational meets that the Euclid team participated in. Head coach, Bob Ramlow and assistants, Lou Tomasi, Tom Halbedel and Frank Soltesz made sure that the participants were prepared for their events. Their practices involved extensive stretching and weight training and running.

The team was very strong in the sprint events with Pepe Pearson, Raeshuan Jernigan, Brandon Biggom, Keith Eubank, Mike Nagy and Devon Jackson. In the longer events outstanding participants were Chris Atlas, Pat Carney and Phil Baioni.

'CHECKING' IT OUT

Euclid hockey skates to second in division

The 1991-92 season was a time in which the Euclid High School Hockey team gained long overdue recognition and attention from the media and the school, and hockey fans learned that Euclid was a force to be reckoned with on the ice.

Even before the season opener the players had their hearts set on winning their third straight division, the Baron Cup Championship, and a final four spot in the state tournament. Led by a fast, threatening set of forwards, an experienced, hard-hitting crew of defensemen and strong, consistent performances from the goalies, the team got a great start and was in first place, with an undefeated league record, going into the home stretch. Two critical losses late in the season knocked the Panthers out of first. Poor showings in the Baron Cup and State Playoffs ended the season early and shattered the goals that the team wanted to attain so badly.

One of the great accomplishments made by the team was to show Euclid fans that hockey has truly developed into a winning program at Euclid and will continue to show constant development.

DIFFERENT STROKES

Boys and girls swim teams

Lead by Coach Lou Davis and Tri-Captains, Mike De Bartolomeo, Paul Kostansek and Bob Schmeling, the men's swim team splashed through a successful season. With strong support from the underclassmen, the predominately senior team worked hard from the beginning. Practices were held both before and after school so a lot of time was put into the process of learning the basics of swimming. The highlight of the season occurred when freshman, Jim Belanich won the GCC in the backstroke.

Despite the efforts of co-captains Kim Florian and Mariana Zdrilic, freshman Melanie Shippitka and Mariana Bruketa the lady panther swim team suffered a disappointing season. The team finished with a 5-8 record overall and 0-5 in the GCC.

The team was led by coach, Joan Bush. She had experience coaching elsewhere but this was her first year at Euclid. The girls worked hard and put in a lot of dedicated hours but the team suffered from a lack of experience. Because of that, next year's team should be stronger and have a better record.

ACADEMICS

OPPORTUNITY TO LEARN

A wide range of courses are offered to the students of Euclid High School-possibilities include everything from physics to keyboarding. An intelligent and dedicated collection of instructors is a necessity in order for the students to gain the knowledge which will prepare them for the future. The teachers here at Euclid are undoubtedly well-qualified in this regard. They are always available should a student need assistance. Thanks to them, Euclid students are given the opportunity to succeed.

Unit Offices now alphabetical

The unit offices underwent major reorganizations for the 1991-92 school year. Instead of the traditional counselors and unit principals being assigned to a specific grade level the staff was assigned to students in a particular alphabetical placement. This meant that counselors had students of all grade levels. The letters were arranged so as to give the counselors approximately equal student populations. In addition, a new unit, call the PASS unit was created to handle students with special problems.

NEW DIVISION

The new Unit divisions meant that the counselors had to be up to date on events happening in all the grade levels. It took some getting used to but will hopefully be better since each counselor will be exposed to students of all grades and not stuck with all ninth graders for an entire year.

Euclid students get much information from their classes but their counselors help them decide which classes would be best for them to take.

NEW

Attendance

A new attendance policy was implemented this year because of Senate Bill 140 which required all absences and tardies to be accounted for.

The new attendance is located where the Athletic Office used to be and students are required to check in if they arrive late to school. There is a "call-home" machine which automatically calls the home of students that are not in school and informs their parents.

With this system there is more accurate knowledge of who is or is not in school.

Mr. Robert Smith realizes that the new attendance policy will make it easier for him to keep track of students in his classes. Mrs. Bette Schmeling still has a lot of work to do to keep track of all of her students. Security Aide, Karen Yuhas and Tom Banc discussing how nice it is to get an absence list that is up to date.

PASS

A new unit called PASS, Positive Alternative to School Success, was also added for the 1991-92 school year. This was established for the ninth grade since it was found that many students were not able to handle the high school environment with success and were not able to get out of the ninth grade. This unit was formed for students with problems that made it difficult for them to succeed at the High School. Mr. Seymour was the Unit Principal and Mrs. Barker and Mrs. Fox were the Counselors. The students were in their own homerooms and they got special attention from the counselors and the school psychologists, Mrs. Jean Fankell and Mr. Jim Mackemull. Much effort in the way of group guidance, weekly progress reports, attendance monitoring, parent programs and additional counseling went into trying to enable these students to succeed. The motto of the program was 'Discipline with Responsibility'.

The goal of the program was to enable the students to claim self esteem, to act responsible, to relate effectively and to be able to solve problems without showing anger.

Hopefully the implementation of the PASS program will enable all students at Euclid High School to become successful members of the classroom like these students are.

GRADS

in a family way

Another new program this year was the GRADS one which stood for, Graduation, Reality And Dual-Role Skills. This was for students who were either pregnant or were young parents. It was for both males and females and focused on knowledge and skills related to positive self image, the medical aspects of pregnancy, parenting and economic independence. Mrs. Deborah Rudder was the GRADS coordinator at the high school. The students met both individually and in groups to discuss ideas to gain confidence and support and to increase the likelihood that they would remain in school and be able to graduate.

Speaking of reproduction, Mrs. Zubizarreta is using one of the three new copy machines that were installed in the building for the 1991-92 school year. These were very versatile machines that made reproducing materials for the classroom a faster and simpler operation since the Main Office secretaries no longer had to do it. The machines were located in the library and the first floor teacher's workroom.

Miss Carmody and Miss Bambic ran the spirit booth in the stadium during the football games.

UNDERCLASS

One, Two or Three To Go

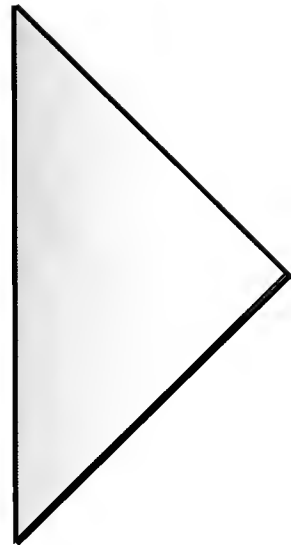

Life at Euclid High School is full of opportunities for underclassmen. A large variety of organizations and sports are available to the students. The underclass years can be very stressful for many students since they are striving to meet people and form friendships. In a school the size of Euclid, the chances of forming relations is highly likely. Underclassmen experience a great change in maturity as they move through their beginning years at Euclid High School. The three years spent as an underclassman are essential for creating an outstanding senior class.

It's sooooo big, is the impression that most freshmen get when they first enter the huge expanse that is called Euclid High School. There are so many halls and so many rooms and so many ways to get to the same place or to get lost. The Administration hosts an informal get together before school begins to acquaint the freshmen with many of the intricacies of the school which makes the first few days much less painful. No matter what is done, though, going into a big, new school as a freshmen is a traumatic experience for many students. There are so many people to meet and new friends to be made. Most of the freshmen are able to adjust and go on to become productive members of the school. A few, however, never seem to be able to make the transition to the larger environment of the high school and are not able to succeed on the high school level. The formation of the new PASS unit this year should help to enable more freshmen to be successful at Euclid.

Missy Ferrato, John Scarniench, Mike Waltermire and Shannon Nadvornik learning many of the important things about the world around them in their science class. The first day of school saw only freshmen going to their classes which helped to acclimate them to the school. Here, some freshmen are learning about the process of getting served in the cafeteria. Freshmen need several history courses in order to graduate such as Mrs. Heuer's class shown here. The cafeteria was a great place to congregate and discuss the day's events.

THE CLUB

Euclid offers its students many opportunities to get involved in extracurricular activities. High school is not just a matter of going to classes but also the enjoyment of getting interested in activities so that you can meet other people with similar interests. If there is not an existing activity then it is possible to get together with other students of similar interests and find a teacher who would be a sponsor and begin your own club.

During the first day for freshmen Key Club and other clubs had displays set up in the cafeteria so freshmen could see what the different clubs offered. Laura Kunchik and Liza Zorko trying to decide how to get there from where they are.

The sophomore year is one of maturing into the rigors of high school life. Sophomores have gained enough maturity so as to realize that they have to do a little bit of studying and have been able to get out of the freshman class and are well on their way towards graduation. It is a very important time of life since many sophomores turn sixteen which means that getting their driver's license is possible. This is what most adolescents look forward to from their first day in school. Sophomores lack the sophistication of juniors and seniors and the naivete of being a freshman. They have a certain innocence which makes them very pleasant to be around.

MOTIVATION

Reggie Dabbs talked about tough times

On November 15, during the second period many Euclid students got to hear a motivational speech by Mr. Reggie Dabbs. The previous year Reggie was at Euclid with Dave Roeber who talked about his incident in Viet Nam where a phosphorous grenade exploded in his face. This year Reggie talked about his life as a fatherless child who was taken in by a family and had pride instilled in him. He showed how really hard of a life he had and how he was able to get through it.

Reggie Dabbs went into the audience to talk to the students.

Twice in one week in October, school was dismissed early due to fires in the school. On Tuesday, October 15, the students were sent home at 2:15 because of a burning smell and smoke in the office corridor, which was later discovered to have been caused by a faulty ballast transformer in a fluorescent light in a showcase in the front corridor. On Thursday, October 17, the building was evacuated during the second period when smoke was again detected in the boy's pool. All students and staff members waited in the stadium for about 30 minutes. The cause of the smoke could not be discovered so classes were dismissed for the rest of the day. Just after the students left it was discovered that a piece of wood in the roof was smouldering throughout the night because a roofer's torch had been set down incorrectly.

ONLY ONE YEAR TO GO

Juniors are in a unique position. They are not seniors and, therefore, are not the oldest students in the school, and they are no longer sophomores so they lack the innocence of youth. They have advanced to the point where they are expected to be able to make decisions for themselves but are not the ruling class in the school. They have to be content with making it through the year so they can be seniors next year.

LOOK AT THE WORLD

The world certainly changed throughout the 1991-92 school year. The continuing changes in the Soviet Union dominated the news. Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev, who played such an important part in the beginning of the reforms in Russia, lost much of his power to Russian President Boris Yeltsin. After the unsuccessful military coup in August many Russian republics began dropping out of the Soviet Empire to become independent states. The world had to be concerned with the many nuclear weapons that were now not in the control of the Soviet Union. A new term, KSU(Ex Soviet Union), was coined to describe the republics that seceded from the Soviet Union. The once powerful Communist Party was removed from leadership. The world was very different from what it had been.

LOOKING AT THE USA

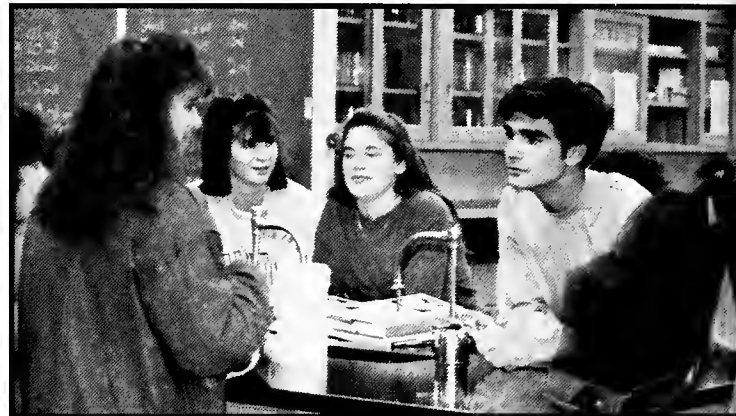

Foreign exchange student sees America in a different way

Marcos Andrade is a Foreign Exchange student from Beira Alta, Portugal. He entered the AFS program to prepare himself to be a more knowledgeable person. He found America to be a big place in comparison with his home. He stayed with Kirk Israel.

One big difference he found with American schools was the lack of freedom that the students had. The schools in Portugal were more similar to American colleges in that the students had the option to leave the school grounds at any time or to spend study hall time outside the school or even at home.

He said that young people in the United States had less freedom than in Portugal where there were no restrictions on night clubs or drinking nor any curfews.

Marcos hopes to finish his education and become a film producer.

On October 9 and 10 the first Parent-Teacher Conferences of the year were held. They were Wednesday evening and Thursday morning. Students did not have class on Thursday which made for a long weekend since Friday was NEOTA Day. The conferences gave parents a chance to meet their children's teachers and to learn how they were doing. Here, Mr. Presot and Mr. Sustin discuss progress with parents.

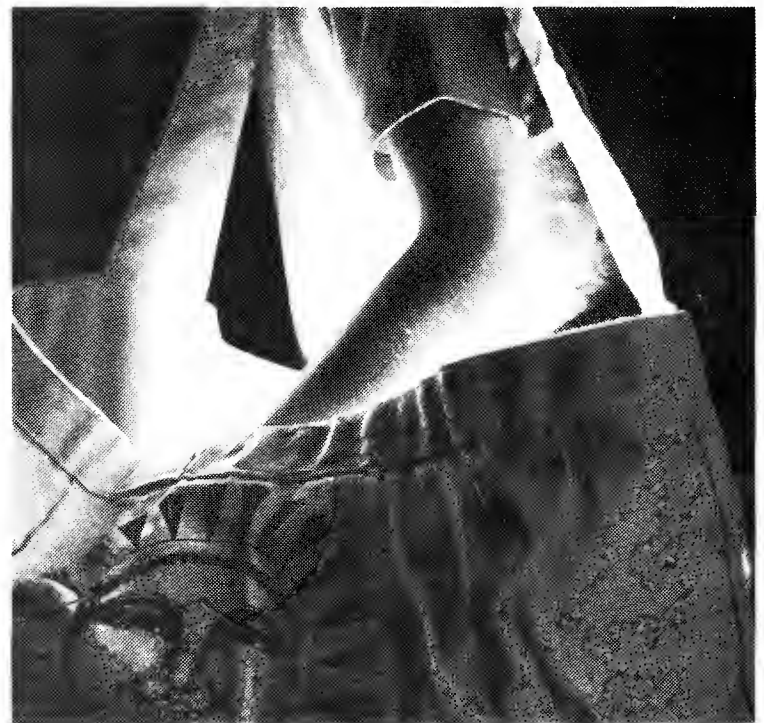

Parents can monitor their children's progress in class by talking to the teachers during Parent-Teacher Conferences.

CLASS

The classroom environment is the very essence of education and how it is conducted dictates whether or not learning will take place. Mr. Walsmith's and Mrs. Niebes' classrooms are examples of a positive learning situation.

Getting Through

To You

During the summer of 1990, Euclid High School was wired and equipped with the Whittle Communication System, Channel One. This was used to bring Channel One broadcasts into the homerooms throughout the school. It was really appreciated during the war in the Persian Gulf since the students were able to get up-to-the-minute information about what was going on. Morning announcements, however, were still presented over the P.A. system.

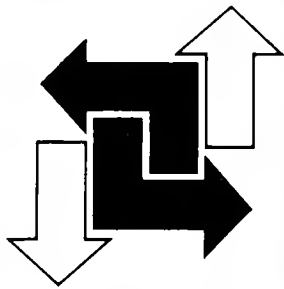

Beginning at the end of the 1990-91 school year and continuing through the 1991-92 school year the morning announcements were presented using the Whittle equipment so that the announcers could be seen as well as heard. This was brought about by integrating the Media Aides and the Morning Announcers with members of the Media Aides becoming TV technicians and the P.A. announcers becoming TV personalities. This has brought about a much greater interaction between the announcers and the audience. The people in the homeroom pay much more attention to the TV broadcasts than they did to the P.A. announcements since they can see exactly who is making the announcement and there is a greater chance for creativity. The Whittle system has been a great asset so far and shows promise of being even a bigger asset in the years to come.

The Media aides control the cameras and taping. Kelah Pennington and the other Homecoming candidates gave their speeches over the Whittle system. Steve Sirk was one of the regular morning announcers that the school got to listen to each morning.

SENIOR

SENIORS

Paul Kostansek, Stacie Evans, Hope Robinson and Dionne Sims getting together during the Homecoming Game before presenting the Homecoming Queen and Court to the fans.

By the time students become seniors, many realize that getting to school on time is a very good habit to get into since many prospective employers look at the attendance record of their applicants to see if they are in the habit of arriving on time.

Being a senior means having more responsibilities and advantages. Seniors were allowed to go to a special assembly dealing with the Bill of Rights in conjunction with their History classes.

DIVIDER

While the offense is on the field, Coach Rezzolla gives defensive players, Sam Di Bartolomeo and Bryan Peoples, some advice on how to handle the opposing team.

Participation in the many events that go on at Euclid High School is a good way to feel involved in student life. Homecoming was a good way that allowed many students to participate in school activities. Students did everything from passing around petitions to be signed, putting up signs, making tapes for the morning announcements, decorating for the dance and many other activities that were a part of homecoming.

As freshmen they saw Euclid High School as a mountain, beckoning them to climb. As sophomores, the top could be seen, but reaching it still seemed an impossible task. During their junior year the summit was in reach, and the end of the journey was within their grasp. Now, as seniors, the class of 1992 have reached their goal and are now able to gaze back down the mountain. What they saw were four years of anticipation, wondering what the future would bring them. For many, high school was a time of tremendous pressure. Students strived for good grades, studied for weekly exams, crammed for finals, and some prepared for advanced placement examinations. High school was an endless party for others, whose primary concerns were to get passing grades to be able to graduate in June. The Class of '92 will never forget the accomplishments of Euclid's various clubs and activities, or the exceptional athletic success stories of the Panther teams. Memories of spirited pep rallies, dances, Homecomings, and Winterfests will be fondly remembered by all who attended them. No one can tell what the future will hold for the graduates. With a little luck, the Class of 1992 will be able to remain at the peak of their mountain for many years to come.

-Kristen Gajowski

I Can't Eat This

No matter how good the food is, students feel that it is their duty to complain about it. Actually, Euclid's food is very good in comparison to other schools that have the food prepared outside the school and brought in for each meal. Visitors from other schools usually remark about the high quality of our food. Movies

Euclid students had many favorite movies. It almost seemed as if everyone had their own favorite. A couple that appeared more than once were Rocky and Top Gun.

Missing

In Memoriam

On July 29, 1984 Tracy L. Cusack was swimming in a race at Centerville Mills Summer Camp. After the race she said she felt dizzy and couldn't breathe. She was given mouth-to-mouth resuscitation but never recovered. The cause of death was never determined. She would have been a senior graduating with the class of 1992. Her parents would like to share this story with her friends.

To Our Dearest Daughter Tracy,

The last seven years have been the hardest to cope with, because you have not been here to share them with us. We know love is eternal, but it's hard without your sense of humor and great personality!!! We have nothing but wonderful memories of you, and they will last forever.

Tracy, we will be going to see all your friends graduate as the class of '92. It will be hard not seeing you there, but you will be remembered in the hearts of all graduates, faculty, all others present, and mostly by mom, dad and family.

*We will never forget you, for love is eternal
Mr. and Mrs. David Covelli*

There's a corner up in heaven
Where the little babies play
And our Blessed Mother watches
All throughout the live long day.
They're a happy lot, these babies
Sure the reason's very plain
For they've missed the worlds' contagion
Came unscathed, without its' pain
'Tis an angel band they call them,
And you both should happy be.
You're the parents of an angel.
'Cause your baby's there you see.
Yes, and smiling down upon you
With an innocence sublime;
Waiting, watching for the parents
It will meet again in time.
You should never be rebellious.
Rather thank a loving God
For your little guardian Angel,
As along life's way you plod.
With a faith that never falters.
Clasping each the other's hand.
Pledge yourselves to meet your baby,
In that better happy land.

SANTAS AND ELVES

Elf day raises money for prom

Decked out in bells, elf hats, and all the red and green they could find, members of the class of '92 transformed themselves from normal, average students into Santa's little helpers.

Seniors had to sell 40 tickets, or twenty dollars worth to attain the privilege of becoming an elf. A drawing was held the Wednesday before Winter vacation to find out who the lucky Santas were. Those fortunate enough to become Santas received the services of their elf for the entire elf day which was the last day of school before vacation. Participation in Senior Elf Day was a great way to get into the Winter spirit. This was the most successful elf day ever since the class of '92 raised over $1500 for their Prom in June.

-Kristen Gajowski

Some of the participants in Senior Elf Day were Sheba Cleveland, Tiffeney Dennis, Devonna Mauldin, Kamel Bey and Tequila Pennington.

Others were Holly Scott, Irene Dejak, Dave Cupar, Stacey Brown and Emily Smayda.

Mr. Presot's friends were Kristen Loveless, Holly Scott, Chrissy Subel, Janelle Groves, Christin Fogarty, Heather Graffius, Kelly Dwyer and Katie Schoen. Denise Kukla, Julie Di Bartolomeo, Kristen Mihalie, Marie Ortnan, Sue Jakopanec and Stacy Meden enjoyed themselves during the day.

BLOOD LETTING

Student Council sponsors annual blood drive

Student Council sponsored its' annual blood drive on Thursday, December 5, 1991. It was held on the stage in the Auditorium. Many students took this opportunity to give blood. The students who gave found it to be a pleasant way to help others. Blood was something that was always in demand since it has so many uses in the medical environment. The procedure does not hurt and the students were usually done in about an hour. A common misconception is that you can get sicknesses from giving blood. Everything is sterile so there is no way a person can get sick from giving blood. Donating blood is a helpful activity that everyone should participate in.

Boy's tennis struggles through season with high hopes for upcoming years

The Boy's Varsity Tennis Team had a really rough year and finished with a 1-11 record. An encouraging point is that all of the varsity players will return this year so the team will consist of experienced players. There were so many people going out for the tennis team that they were able to have a J. V. Team for the first time in many years.

The J. V. Team finished the season with a 3-8 record. They suffered many close decisions so there should be hope for the future.

The 50's and 60's Remembered

Swim Show brings back some ole memories

Eucclid's annual synchronized swim show was put on by the Wai Napolo Swim Club in May of 1991. Music of the 50's and 60's was featured. The Senior Show Director was Sheri Gezann and the Junior Show Director was Jennie Ayers. The announcer for the performances was Jonasis Smith.

The show consisted of some land work around the pool and water work in the pool. The annual underwater number took place totally beneath the surface of the pool.

The Swim Show is the culmination of months of work trying to get everything to come together.

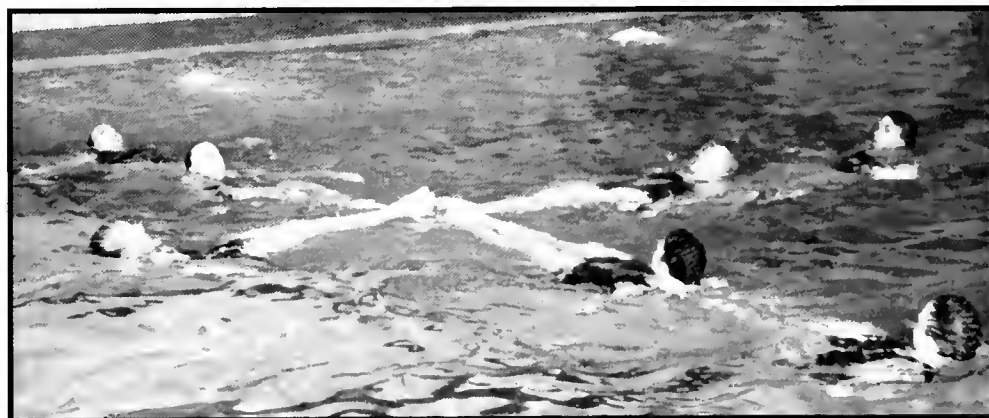

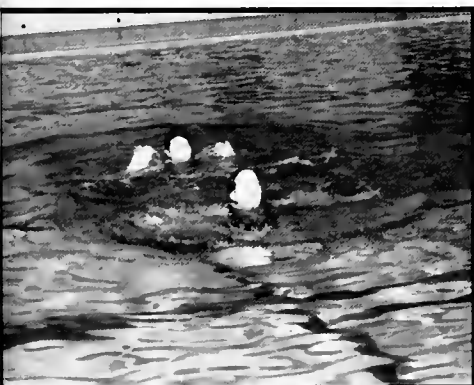

Michele Lynn, Melisa Nagode, Jenny Wolchko, Joyce Ashman, Sheri Gezann, Jennie Ayers, and Lisa Moster doing the land work during the 'Opening'.

Jennifer Dell, Lisa Moster, Kelly Carney, Michele Lynn, Jennie Ayers, and Lauren Scheurman doing their routine for the 'Prop' number. This was the only number in which the girls did not go into the water but just did a land performance.

Guys & Dolls

A Musical Fable of Broadway

Once again Euclid High School's Big Show was a complete success. In contrast to the well known story of 'Annie' the 1991 production of 'Guys and Dolls' centered on both the lives of gamblers and missionaries.

Set in the heart of New York City, the musical opened with a street scene showing daily life in New York. It then moved on to show how Nathan Detroit (Todd Shuskey) was trying to find a place for his crap game where the police couldn't find it. Nathan knows that if he could find a place for his game, he could make a lot of money because lots of high stakes players were in town including Sky Masterson (Bryant Carroll), the highest player of them all. Nathan eventually found a place for his crap game but he needed $1000. To get the money Nathan bet Sky Masterson $1000 that he could not take Sargent Sarah Brown (Dianne Baird), the head of the town mission to Havana with him. Sky takes the bet and ends up falling in love with Sarah. After Sky returns with Sarah from Havana, he finds out where the crap game was. While at the game, Sky bets all the guys present $1000 against their souls, meaning that they would have to attend one prayer meeting at Sargent Sarah's mission. The story concluded with the marriages of both Sky Masterson to Sargent Sarah Brown and Nathan Detroit to Mission Adelaide (Debra Long), his fiancée of 14 years.

The show was brought together by director Ms. Sandi Bambic, Vocal director Mr. Paul Newell, Orchestra director Mr. Stephen Alspaugh, choreographers Sally Parrino and Jerry Macek, Technical director Mr. Allen Black and art director Mrs. Edie Mellen.

On May 21, 1991 the annual Senior Awards Program was held in the Little Theater after school. At that time seniors received many awards presented by colleges and city organizations. The awards vary from certificates to plaques to monetary awards to help pay for advanced education. It is a nice time since so many seniors are recognized for their achievements.

SENIOR AWARDS

Euclid students were exposed to a rare event on May 8, 1991 during the second period when a fire started in one of the ventilation units above the drafting shops. It was necessary for the firemen to remove the cover in order to put out the fire. Students were outside for more than a half-hour while the fire was brought under control.

FIRE!!

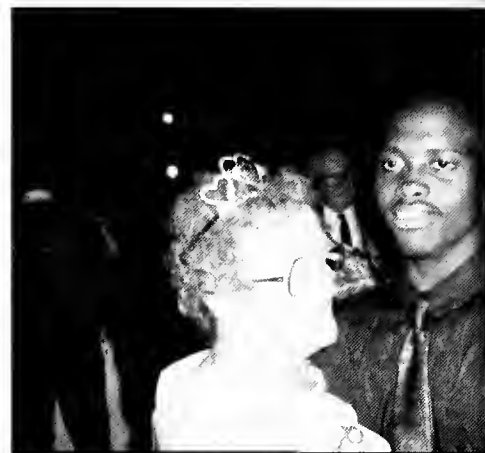

Senior citizens regained their teenage memories at Student Council's 'Senior' Senior Prom. Colorful flowers and exciting sights brought smiles from all in attendance. A special appearance from Mayor Lynch brightened the evening and made the crowning of the King and Queen a memorable experience. A night of dance and talk ended with wishes of more.

-Emily Smayda

The senior citizens were entertained by music from the Big Band era.

Senior Senior Prom

Derrick Wilson, Shelley Tobias and Vidal Curry dancing with some of the senior citizens who were enjoying themselves during the evening.

Pro Wrestling

Euclid students were treated to a unique experience when Pro Wrestling came to Euclid High School. The wrestlers made appearances during the lunch periods where they signed autographs and mingled with the students. On Saturday evening there was a wrestling match in the Boy's Gym.

Senior Prom

Prom was a time of happiness and unforgettable memories. Landerhaven Country Club hosted the gala event on June 5. After-Prom was a break from tradition by being held at Riverview Racket Club. Tennis, beach volleyball all, swimming, eating and dancing ended the night of fun.

-Emily Smayda

After arriving at Landerhaven the couples had to get their tickets from the receptionist. Most of them then got in line to have their picture taken. After that, there was plenty of time to get some refreshments and mingle before dinner started.

Commencement

Senior Commencement was a farewell to the Class of E'xcitement. It took place on June 9 at the Front Row Theater. Special speeches were given by the Co-Valedictorians, Carla Matiaska and Meredith FitzGerald. Graduates received their diplomas and walked out into the world with a new perspective.

-Emily Smayda

The students lined up in the outer halls of the Front Row waiting for the precessional. After entering the Varsity Chorale sang several songs. Co-Valedictorians, Meredith FitzGerald and Carla Matiaska talked to their classmates and their parents.

In Memoriam

JAMES F. GOEBEL

March 1, 1934 - January 27, 1992

Euclid High School 1973-1992

Mr. James F. Goebel passed away on January 27, 1992, while serving in his nineteenth year as a teacher of Vocational Automotives and Industrial Arts. Mr. Goebel had the respect and admiration of his many students who appreciated not only the knowledge which he imparted to them, but also the concern which he showed for each of them.

The adult staff members also held Mr. Goebel in high esteem, remembering him fondly for both his expertise, willingness to help and good humor.

He will not be forgotten.

Mr. Goebel always found time to help students during class. Often the students in his classes would get together in a social setting after school was out.

THIS IS THE END

Thank You

The staff of the 1992 Euclidian would like to extend thanks to all who helped to make this book possible. First and foremost, thanks have to go to the adviser, Mr. Von Benken for the many long hours of hard work and planning that had to be put in to get the entire operation going and to keep it going. Others to be thanked are: Ohio School Pictures for supplying film and processing for the many pictures that appear in the book and for taking many of the team pictures, senior and underclass pictures. Josten's Yearbook Company for putting it all together in such an artistic manner, Jan Kehn for all the time she spent arranging photography dates and supplying needed materials, the writers and photographers who contributed their time, Jim Presot and his Marketing Education class for selling ads, and last but not least, the entire student body at Euclid High School without which this book could not exist.

Regrets

The 1991-1992 school year is history. Many interesting and significant events occurred during that time and the Euclidian tried to cover as many of them as possible. This was difficult, however, due to the few people that worked on the production of the book. The enrollment at Euclid High School was very low compared to previous years. Because of this there were fewer people who devoted time to the yearbook. Most of the work was done by the adviser who tried to do his best but there is only so much that could be done. We sincerely apologize for any errors or omissions that occurred but you have to understand that this is only a high school publication and mistakes happen. Anyone was welcome to help on the book this year and would also be welcome to help next year. The adviser was working on the book every day after school in room 398 and would welcome anyone's help. If you didn't like the way something was done this year then help change it for next year. Your ideas and help are always welcome.

Colophon

700 copies of the 1992 Euclidian were printed by the Jostens Printing and Publishing Division at State College, Pennsylvania. The book was printed on Gloss 191 paper stock and included 48 pages of full color, 32 of which were the senior photographs. Copy was justified and dropped initials were used at the beginning of most copy. All pages were created using the Aldus Pagemaker 4.01 program running on a Macintosh IIsi computer which allowed a great flexibility in the use of fonts and type sizes. Most headlines and subheadlines were Helvetica type while the copy was Times. Senior names, Dropped initials, folios and captions were Palantino type. The computer was running system 6.07 and had 5 megabytes of RAM and a 40 megabyte hard drive. The book used about 15 megabytes of storage. This was the first time that the Euclidian was published using Desk Top Publishing. The pages were recorded on 3.5 inch high-density disks printed on a Hewlett Packard LaserJet III printer. The hardcopy and disks were sent to Josten's which stripped in the photos and produced the final copy on a Linotronic printer. The use of Desk Top Publishing led to a great many opportunities for creativity but the learning curve was so high which made it a time-consuming process. The cover was designed by the Josten's Art Department. Pages were submitted to the plant on five deadlines; November 11, December 2, January 6, February 3 and March 2. All the color pages had to be in the first deadline since their production entails so much work. Since the final deadline was in late February, nothing that occurred after that time was included in the book.
